

Explore Your International

We believe that Huntin' Fool members represent an elite portion of the hunting population. Whether you are dedicated to self-guided hunts or you are a client who prefers to go guided, we know that if you're a Huntin' Fool member, you expect the best information, the best service, and the best hunting opportunity you can find.

We have partnered with Link's Wild Safaris as our exclusive provider of International hunts because we believe they will meet and exceed your expectations. Few people have traveled the globe to hunt and fish more than Jay Link. We believe his experience uniquely qualifies him to identify the "best of the best" among international outfitters. We've also met personally with Link's agents and watched them work tirelessly to match the client's expectations and budget with an outfitter that will live up to both. We're confident that your international hunting dreams are in safe hands with Link's Wild Safaris.

We've highlighted some hunts here that are of special interest to us, but if you don't see what you're looking for, give us a call for a truly comprehensive list of hunting opportunities around the world.

6 SPECIES OF CHAMOIS
