

Russia, Kamchatka (arrival through Anchorage)

KAMCHATKA BROWN BEAR single hunt, or in combination with KAMCHATKA SNOW SHEEP

ENTRY DOCS	Russian single entry tourist visa support (per person)	100 USD
	Hunting rifle import permit (per hunter)	300 USD
VETERINARY DOCS	Domestic veterinary certificate, basic trophy treatment and packing (per trophy)	100 USD
	International veterinary certificate (per trophy)	100 USD
PETROPAVLOVSK- KAMCHATSKY	Hotel accommodation (room/night)	100-200 USD
	Hotel booking assistance	free of charge
	All transfers Airport-Hotel-Airport (per hunter)	100 USD

Please be aware that further to newly introduced Russian State Trophy Export Regulations, all trophies will have to be shipped to their respective owners with some delay, required for extended post-hunting paperwork processing. All harvested trophies will be duly treated for long-term storage and forwarded to our partner professional trophy shipping company in Moscow. The company will store the trophies at their own specially equipped premises until all export documentation is ready and will ship them according to hunter's instructions.

DEFERRED SHIPMENT OF TROPHIES	Basic treatment of Brown Bear trophies for long-term storage and delivery to our partner professional trophy storage and shipping company in Moscow, Russia.	500 USD (per trophy)
	International shipping paperwork and delivery services.	Will be invoiced directly by the shipping company

NOTE: As exportation of Kamchatka Snow Sheep trophy doesn't require lengthy CITES paperwork processing, there might be a possibility to have hunters bring their Snow Sheep trophies home as a regular airline luggage.

Link's Wild Safaris
P.O. Box 210 – Minong, Wisconsin, USA 54859
www.linkswildsafaris.com
715-466-5333